From The Editor

I can't believe summer is already here! Kids are out of school and ready to drive their parents crazy! If you want to keep them busy for a week, sign them up for NightWind's summer riding camp — they'll learn lots and have a blast! Dates are above.

We've had a very busy spring already with endurance rides. Angie Clark, Shelly Grauman and I attended our first of the year on the May long weekend in Long Island Lake. The weather was actually nice for a change! We all completed and had happy healthy horses at the end of our distances. Kathy Irvine and I with the help of super crew member Chelsea Rose went to Fort Howes, Montana again in June. Indi (with me on board of course) did awesome completing his first 75 mile ride in a very respectable time with the help of his big sister Savannah, Kathy and Chelsea. This weekend it's off to the beautiful trails at Brule (near Grande Cache) for another endurance ride for all of us. Should be a blast! If any of you would like to give this wonderful sport a try, come on out to one of the rides listed above, volunteer for a ride to see what it's all about and then come back to ride. It's an experience in horsemanship unlike any other.

*Happy Trails,
Colleen*

2007 Region 17 Hunter Pleasure Junior Horse Champion: Burnt Siena is a 2003 Purebred, sweepstakes-nominated mare with fabulous blood lines: Northberry Bey by HBB+/ x Bask Annn [Bold Destiny+/ x Al Marah Radames daughter}) She is chestnut with three white socks; 14.3 hh. I am selling this mare because I got pregnant shortly after I purchased her and feel that her talent is being wasted. I do not have the time she deserves. She is good in the arena and on the trail. She needs a gentle rider, she is very sensitive and honest.

Priced to sell @ $4500.

One of those quotes that made me say— “Wow, that is soooo true!” It was passed on by Kathy Irvine—

“I overheard a conversation once that involved a quote from Cory Hart, Becky Hart’s husband.

He said, “The most important quality in a horse is your belief in him.”
